Sir,

Where? With reference to the Government Order × No. 9150—1/Ed 260 dated the 7th February 1896, I have the honour to inform you that the Chief Engineer of Mysore in his No 2425 dated the 28th May 1896 addressed to this office points out the necessity for a further appropriation of Rs 479— — for the current year's expenditure on the work of constructing a building for the Govern——ment school at Channapayapatna, as the sum of Rs 3500— — asked for in accordance with the Chief Engineers requisition and sanctioned by Government, is now found to be insufficient for the current year's outlay

I request that Government may be pleased + sanction the payment of the sum of Rs 479— — referred to from the provision still available out of the amount of Rs 2000 —.— sanctioned but not now required for the Tuticorin school building (Vide this office letter no 7667/308 dated the 3rd June 1896)
